The scholarship award will cover your registration for the conference and 4 nights stay at The Hyatt Regency in Bloomington. This is a total value of over $1,000!

Here is how to enter and some helpful guidelines:

1. Write an essay of 300 words or less. The essay MUST be written by the applicant.
2. Email your essay and your supervisor/manager consent to Bryan.Wagner@Westerville.org by 5:00 CST on August 23rd.

The winner will be notified by August 30th and announced in the AACE newsletter.

YOUR WINNING ESSAY SHOULD DISCUSS:

What code Enforcement means to you and your community.

How does/has code enforcement play such a vital role in the growth of your City?

Give us an example of a partnership that worked or did not work in your community. If it did not work discuss how things could change to make it better. If it did work also explain how it could be improved upon.

ELIGIBILITY: First Time Attendee or have not attended in more than 5 years.

Please note written confirmation from a direct supervisor or manager authorizing your attendance MUST accompany your essay submission. Without this approval your essay will not be accepted. Email entries to Bryan.Wagner@Westerville.org
